Get unique private access and manage the application as if it were your own!

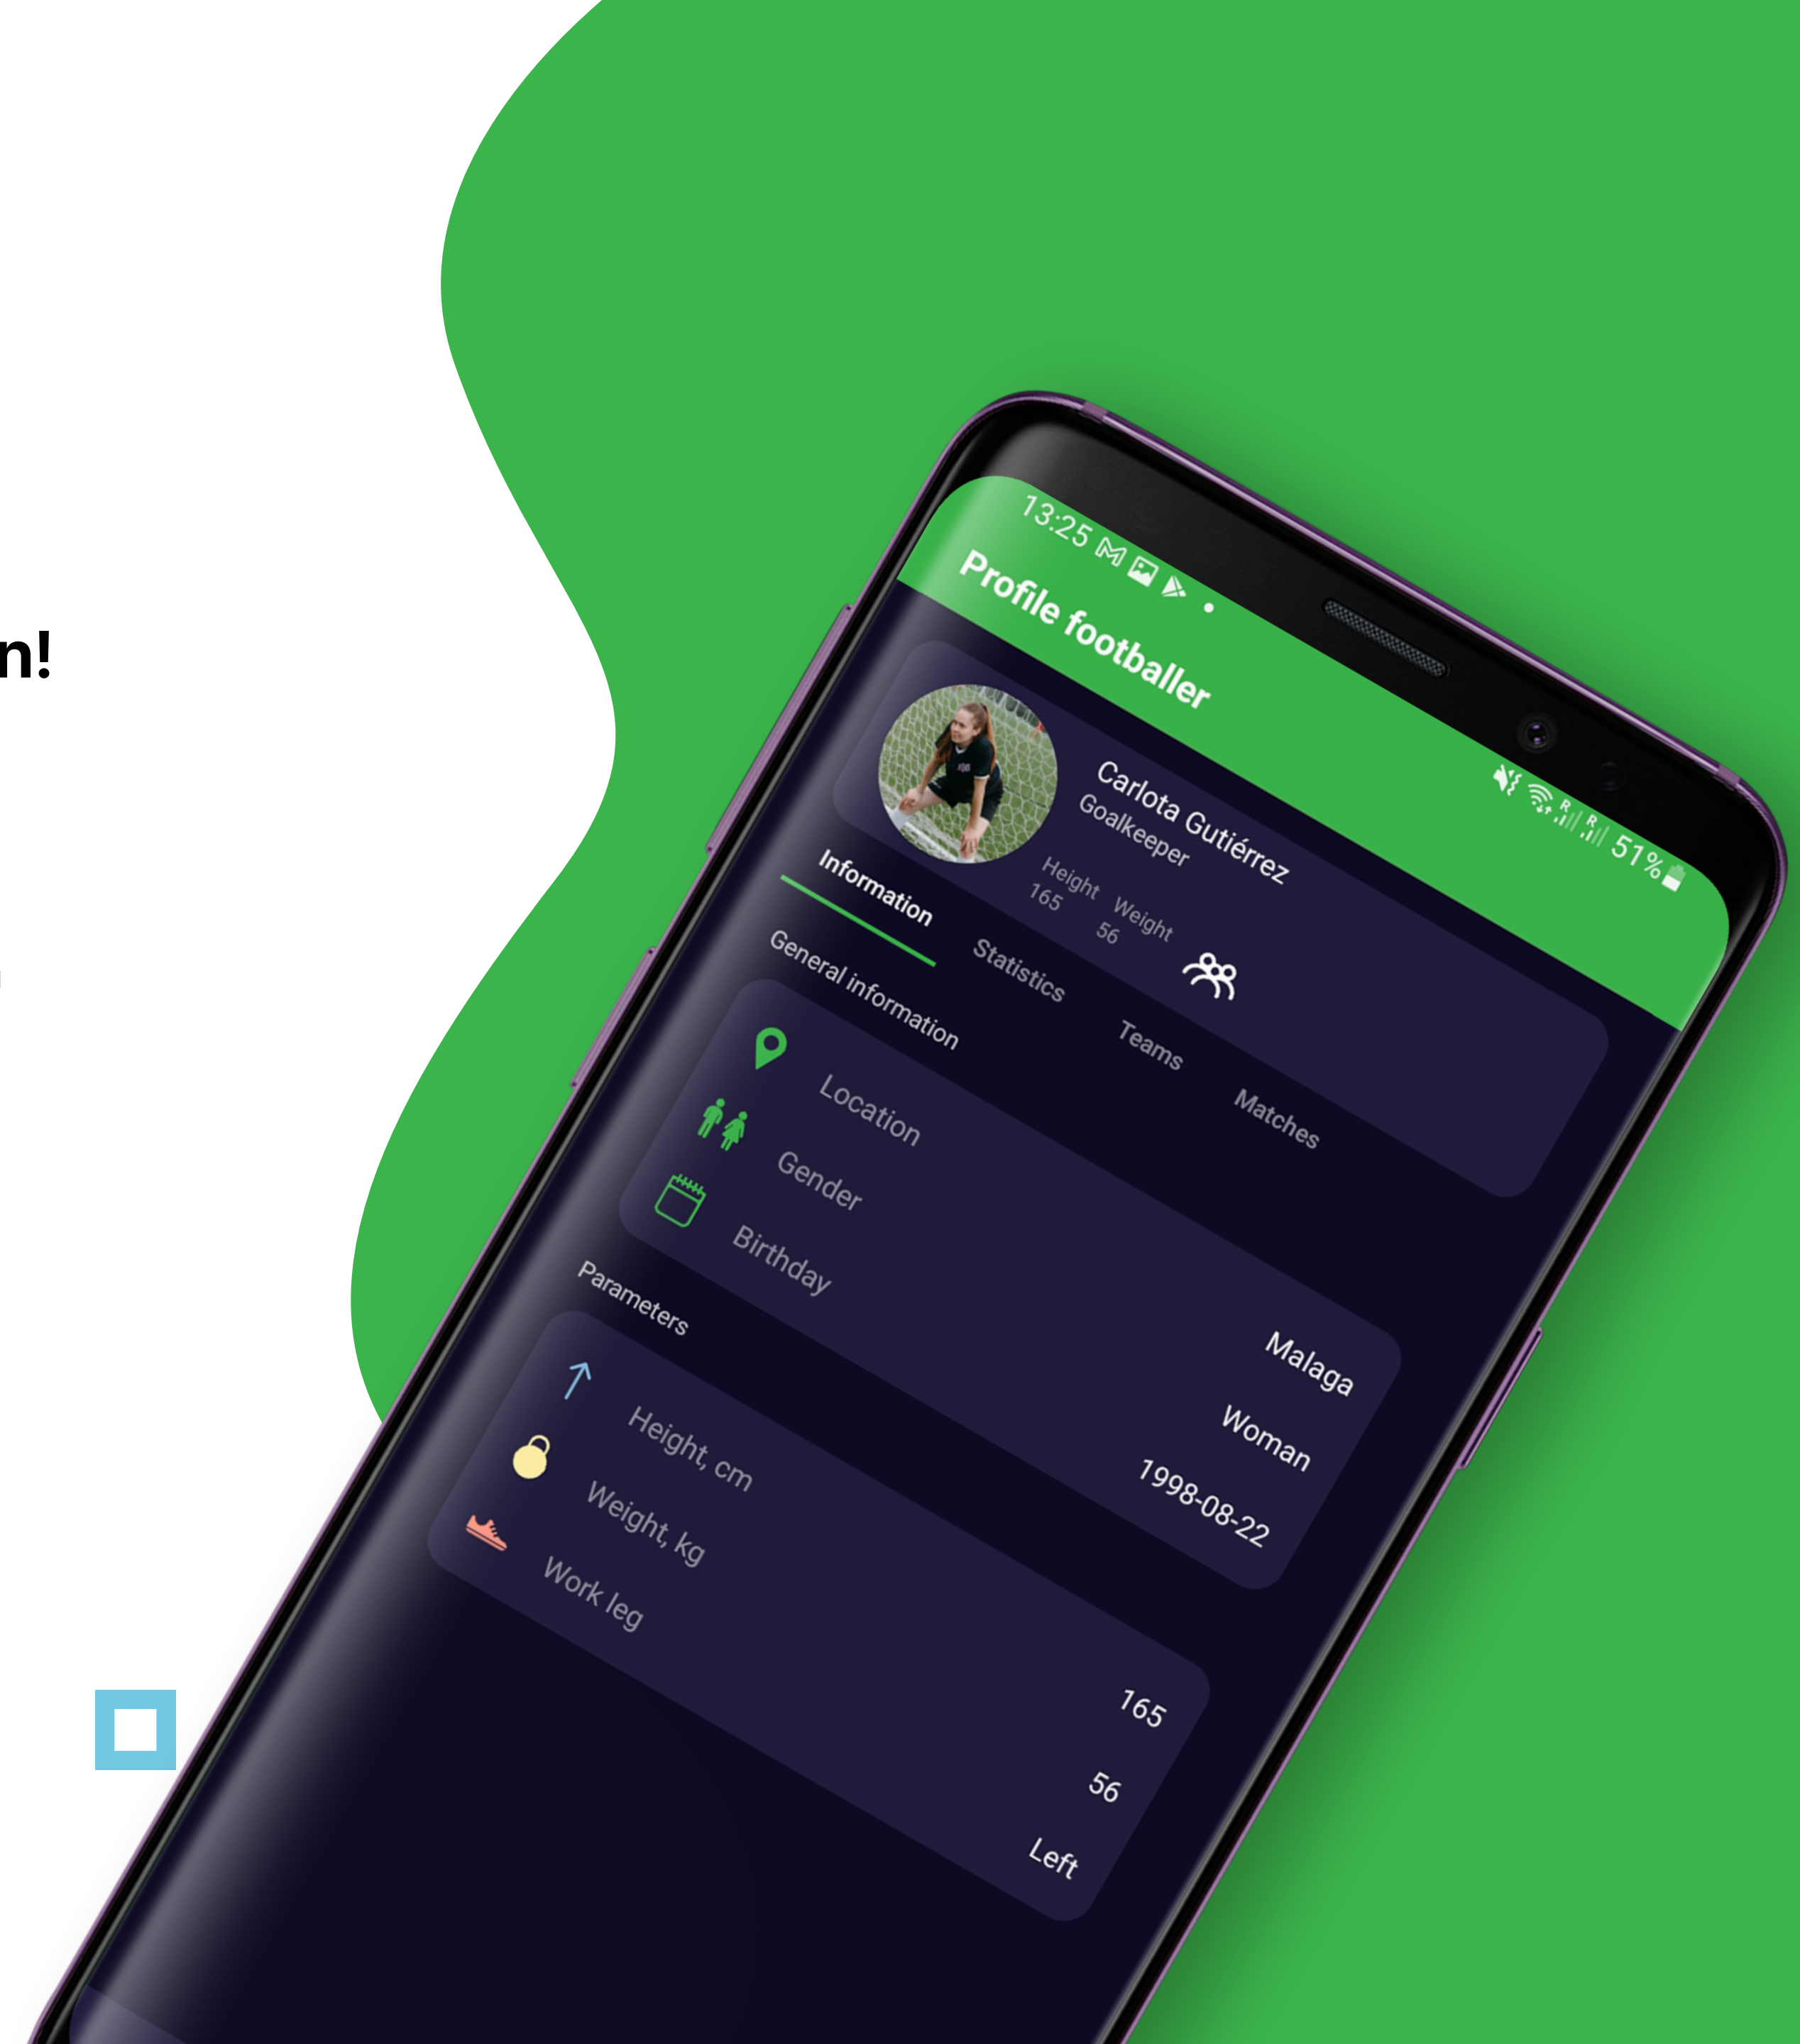

Our application provides an opportunity to purchase a paid subscription and use the application for personal and important purposes, without the cost of its development.

The content of your application will be available only to your users, available with a protected private group and hidden from public users.

If your organization is in need of privacy or big decisions, you can purchase personal access to the ESME Football app and administration, the content of which is completely under your control.

It is a secure solution for those who need privacy, especially sports schools, sports facilities for children, football organizations, VIP client offers, football stadiums.

The number of private accounts in one company is not limited.

Organization

Control of news, calendar, schedules and announcements. Managing access to information and promotional materials.

Personal

Personalized content only available to users in your private group

Control

Restricted access, only to trusted persons, employees, players or customers. Setting access levels for each participant

Private PUSH

Customized push notifications that work with your content. Only users in your group will receive notifications.

Personal safe platform for kids

Planning your own educational philosophy, learning time management, student control, organizing events, a personal news feed, a single account for a child and a parent, and much more. Personal access allows you to use all the functions of the application, while fully controlling the content and information received by children

Private clubs and football organizations

Organization of private events and tournaments, publication of private information, personalized push notifications, participant control and much more. Creating a unique experience and service for private events with vip

Football Camps

Personalized content, notifications, schedule and news feed for every age or language group. Quick connection of new clients, easy access to information, simple notification method.

Owners of clubs, fields and stadiums

A simple and convenient tool for controlling business processes. The application facilitates the work of the administrator, saves staff time, allows you to quickly notify of all changes, notify and much more.

Scouts and agents

Creation of a database of football players for viewing, organization of personal tournaments and matches to assess the skills of football players. Organization of private paid lists to promote football players to professional academies

How it works? Simply

The process of setting up and gaining access is no different from the usual purchase in the online store!

-  Submit a request for a private account
-  Follow our registration instructions
-  Pay for a subscription
-  Get your personal login and password

You can create any scenarios for your business and personal interests!

For example, collect all your clients for personal training in football skills or nutrition in one application and keep a personal blog and organize classes

Flexible control panel

ESME Football has a flexible control panel that can be combined for any task. The user can go to the control panel and get access to useful system utilities, manage their tasks from any device: computer, phone, tablet

Call participants and set access levels for each of them to control the use of resources and information

Create the best tournaments in your city, make your sports blogging dreams come true with hosting events with guest stars, discover talents in any part of football life!

Use the ESME Football Private service at your discretion, without limits on fantasy and imagination!

ESME Football powered by our self develop control panel system:

Football is just the beginning

The service for the development of football is just a launching pad for the implementation of our global ideas for the digitalization of sports life

In the near future, we will launch platforms for other popular sports

Thank you for your interest in the ESME Football platform
